Application for Delayed Payment of Tournament Broadcast Rights Fees

Radio and television stations may request permission to defer payment of OHSAA tournament broadcast rights fees until after the state tournament is over. If approved by the OHSAA, outlets may pay for all their postseason broadcasts at the same time via credit card or mailing a check. Approved stations will receive a broadcast log sheets for each season (fall, winter and spring) and instructions from the OHSAA, which the station shall keep updated for each game and have signed by the tournament manager or media coordinator.
