Re: DragonFly Virtual Meetings for OHSAA Officials

As a reminder, the OHSAA announced that it will be transitioning to DragonFly Athletics as the game scheduling and officiating assignment platform for the 2023-24 school year beginning July 1, 2023.

We apologize for any frustration for officials who were unable to access the link to this morning's training. The recording of the training has been posted at:

Officials who were active prior to May 5, when profile information was transferred from myOHSAA to DragonFly, were sent instructions to claim your account on June 20. To view that message, go here: <https://ohsaaweb.blob.core.windows.net/files/Officiating/EmailsToOfficials/2023-24/OfficialsClaimDFAccountmid-June.pdf>

Note: You MUST claim your account with the email address included in the June 20 memo to insure your account is linked with your permit information and any assignments that were accepted in Arbiter prior to May 27.

Additional training can be found at <https://www.dragonflymax.com/academyofficials>. Note: 'Registration' and 'Exams' on the DragonFly Academy page do not apply to OHSAA officials at this time.

New officials, or those who reinstated after May 5 were sent instructions beginning July 10 to create a DragonFly account. To view that message, go here: <https://ohsaaweb.blob.core.windows.net/files/Officiating/OfficialsCreateDFAccount.pdf>
