

Sportsmanship Scripts for Public Address Announcers

Public Address Script #1

Fans, _____ High School and the student-athletes participating in this event thank you for your tremendous support. Let's remember to not only respect the participants and coaches but also the contest officials and administrators involved in this event. Let's act with dignity, speak with courtesy and play with pride! On behalf of everyone participating in this contest, please remember to Respect the Game!

Public Address Script #2

Good Afternoon / Good Evening! _____ High School would like to thank you for attending this contest and your support of interscholastic athletics. We also want to remind you that by attending this event, you have a responsibility to represent your school and community in a positive and supporting manner. Everyone's goal today / tonight is to win, but high school sports are educational in nature and teach the participants lessons they can use for a lifetime. So let's respect the officials, coaches, participants, administrators, authority figures and our fellow fans. Thank you!

Public Address Script #3

Welcome to today's / tonight's contest. We would like to remind everyone to treat others in a respectful manner, take personal accountability for your actions and demonstrate integrity while engaged in competition. Let's remember to Respect The Game! Thank you!

Public Address Script #4

Good afternoon / evening, ladies and gentlemen! We would like to remind everyone in attendance today / tonight to speak with courtesy, act with dignity and play with pride. Let's make this a competition one in which we can all be proud of and create a positive experience for everyone. Please remember to cheer and support your team and not against your opponent. Thank you!

Public Address Script #5

Welcome to today's / tonight's contest. We would like to remind everyone in attendance that players play, coaches coach, officials officiate and fans cheer. Let's remember our role, demonstrate positive sporting behavior and help create tremendous memories that will last a lifetime. Thank you!

Public Address Script #6

Good evening / afternoon fans. _____ High School would like to remind you that the score of athletic events are generally forgotten over time, but negative actions by the players, coaches and spectators will be remembered forever. Before you act or say something, think of how history will remember you. And if you are a parent of a participant, be a parent of which your student can be proud. Let's all remember to Respect The Game! Thank you!

Public Address Script #7

Good evening / afternoon fans. _____ High School would like to remind you that the educational value of this event is more important than its outcome. Respect for others, including opponents and officials, is one of those values. Let's remember to support today's teams and the contest officials with the respect they deserve!

Public Address Script #8

Welcome to today's / tonight's contest! _____ High School would like to remind you that in our society, winning has come to mean everything. If winning comes at the expense of good sportsmanship, everyone loses and nothing is gained in the long run. Good sportsmanship means respecting yourself, your opponents and the contest officials. Remember, good sports are winners no matter the score. Thank you!

Public Address Script #9

Welcome to today's / tonight's contest! The Ohio High School Athletic Association requires all host schools to ensure that each contest is administered in a manner that emphasizes the educational values of interscholastic athletics. That means that anyone who disrupts this event will be removed so that we can ensure the safety of all players, coaches, contest officials and fans. So let's all remember to speak with courtesy, act with dignity and play with pride! Thank you!

Public Address Script #10

Good evening / afternoon, fans. _____ High School would like to remind you that good sportsmanship is required at education-based sporting events. Attendance at this contest is a privilege with the expectation to exhibit positive and respectful behavior. For the enjoyment and respect of all in attendance and the coaches and participants in this event, your cooperation in demonstrating the high ideals of sportsmanship is expected and greatly appreciated. Thank you!

Public Address Script #11

Good evening / afternoon, fans. _____ High School would like to remind you that admission to an interscholastic athletic contest is a privilege, and with that privilege comes responsibility . . . the responsibility to conduct yourself in a respectful manner where the game is enjoyable for all fans and participants. Let's all be positive leaders and remember to Respect The Game! Your cooperation is appreciated!

Public Address Script #12

Welcome to today's / tonight's contest! In the spirit of sportsmanship, we ask that all fans act responsibly and courteously to those around you. Abusive language or disorderly conduct is unacceptable and unwelcome at this contest. Let's afford the student-athletes, coaches, contest officials and your fellow fans the respect they desire. Your cooperation is appreciated!

Public Address Script #13

Attention fans. _____ High School would like to remind you that high school sports do more than thrill and inspire. They help prepare today's participants to be tomorrow's community leaders by teaching valuable skills like discipline, dedication and hard work. So let's help contribute to those lessons by conducting ourselves in a respectful and courteous manner. Thank you!

Public Address Script #14

Ladies and gentlemen, good afternoon / good evening, and welcome to _____ High School for this event. As a proud member of the Ohio High School Athletic Association, we would like to wish the participants from both schools good luck and we encourage all spectators to keep in mind that good sportsmanship is expected at all times. Let's be courteous and show respect throughout this contest and refrain from negative cheers, chants or behavior. Thank you!

Public Address Script #15

Welcome to today's / tonight's contest and good luck to both teams! In Ohio, good sportsmanship is a high school tradition, so let's help continue that proud tradition and make our school and community proud by showing good sportsmanship throughout this contest. Let's make our visitors feel welcome and give the contest officials, coaches and participants the respect they deserve. Remember to speak with courtesy, act with dignity and play with pride! Thank you!