Semifinal Game 2

Bishop Watterson (17-3-0) 1
Coach Janet Baird

Gahanna Columbus Academy (17-2-0) 0
Coach Anne Horton

A goal in double overtime decided Bishop Watterson's fate in the OHSAA field hockey state tournament defeating Gahanna Columbus Academy. After two scoreless halves between Bishop Watterson (17-3-0) and Columbus Academy (17-2-0), the game headed to single and then double overtime. After back and forth penalty corners and shots on goal, senior Alex Picolo secured the game for the Eagles scoring with just 1:53 left on the clock.

This marks the 11th time the Eagles have made it to the OHSAA field hockey state tournament and the ninth time heading to the state championship game. They have won three state titles. The Vikings were making their 24th appearance in the OHSAA field hockey state tournament.
