OHSAA to Use Video Instant Replay at State Finals

New in 2019, the National Federation of State High School Associations (NFHS) permits state associations to use video instant replay for state championship-level football games. In September 2019, the OHSAA Board of Directors approved the OHSAA staff to use video instant replay at state championship games. The following are portions of the full instant replay regulations.

Initiation of Instant Replay

Plays are only reviewed if there is reasonable evidence the initial ruling is incorrect and the competitive effect of the play has an immediate impact on the game. The replay staff in the press box will review some aspect of every play but replay staff will only stop a game when there is initial evidence the on-field ruling is incorrect and the result of that error has an immediate impact on the game. Competitive effect takes many things into consideration, but specifically, time of the game, score of the game, location on the field of the play, and impact of the play on the outcome of the game.

The following plays are reviewed:

- Scoring Plays and plays that should have been scoring plays
- Turnovers, including a muffed punt awarded to A, a free kick awarded to A, and failing to make a first down
- The number of the down as it pertains to the current series of plays (2nd down is correct down instead of 3rd down, as an example)
- Time on the Game Clock at the end of the 2nd and 4th quarters. The Play Clock is never reviewable.

Furthermore, egregious errors are reviewed when they either have an immediate impact in a closely contested game or when, if not addressed, would be an embarrassment to the officiating crew and/or the OHSAA.

Replay Reviews

Once a review is conducted, either the ruling on the field will be overturned (the ruling on the field was incorrect), confirmed (the ruling on the field was correct), or stand (video evidence didn't show enough support either way). It is important to remember...the call on the field is ALWAYS correct unless video evidence can prove otherwise. Replay staff will make every possible effort to have replay stoppages conducted in under 2:00.

Reviewable Aspects

The aspects that can be reviewed are covered in this section. This is what allows the replay staff to act in accordance with what should have been judged correctly on the field. The full text of the instant replay regulation is posted on the left side of the OHSAA football homepage at www.OHSAA.org.

Non-Reviewable Plays

Mostly, these are plays that include judgment and create fouls, such as illegal blocks, intentional grounding, momentum exceptions, forward progress, etc.

Fouls

There are instances when the changing of the ruling in replay could result in the changing of an aspect that created a foul, or creates a foul, on the field. There are a few examples of this in section 6.01 and section 6.02. Replay is never involved in creating a foul such as holding, block in the back, pass interference, etc.

Loss of Communication or Video

This outlines the process by which we proceed in the event there is technical difficulty in the replay booth or in the communication medium between the replay booth and the on-field officials.

All-session tickets and a limited number of indoor Club Level all-session tickets go on sale in October for the OHSAA state championship games. A VIP parking pass is also available for purchase. Please check the OHSAA website next fall for details on these special ticket packages.

Overtime Procedures

- At the end of regulation, there will be a three-minute intermission during which both teams may confer with their coaches. During the intermission, the officials will meet the captains at the center of the field for a coin toss. The winner of the toss shall be given the choice of defense or offense or which end of the field the ball will be put into play. Each team will be permitted one timeout per overtime period.
- After the coin toss, the offensive team will put the ball in play, first and 10 on the defensive team's 20-yard line. The possession shall be terminated if the offense scores, the defense has possession of the ball at the end of any down (if the defensive team gains possession, the ball becomes dead immediately) or the offense fails to make the line-to-gain.
- After the offense has completed its possession, the defense will become the offensive team. In order to ensure equal game conditions, the same goal shall be used by both teams.
- If the score remains tied after each team has been given one series, the procedure shall be repeated, except there will be no coin toss, until a winner is determined. There will be an intermission of two minutes, during which the loser of the original coin toss will be given first choice of the options, which includes the option to change goals. First choice of options will alternate for each overtime period.
- There will be an intermission of five minutes after every third overtime period.

Moeller's Jordan Marshall is Ohio Mr. Football

Cincinnati Archbishop Moeller running back is the 37th winner of the prestigious award

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Cincinnati Archbishop Moeller senior running back Jordan Marshall has been named Ohio Mr. Football by the Ohio Prep Sportswriters Association. He is the 37th winner of the prestigious award.

Marshall, at 6-foot and 205 pounds, totaled 149 points in the statewide voting by OPSWA members.

Cleveland Heights junior running back Marquise Davis totaled 143 points to earn runner-up honors in the statewide media association.

Other Mr. Football finalists included Findlay junior quarterback Ryan Montgomery, Canton South senior quarterback Jack "Poochie" Snyder, Medina senior quarterback Danny Stoddard, Hilliard Bradley senior quarterback Bradyn Fleharty, Bishop Watterson senior linebacker Dominic Purcell and West Muskingum senior running back Rashid SeSay.

The Ohio Mr. Football Award was given by the Associated Press from 1987-2016. It has been given by the Ohio Prep Sportswriters Association since 2017.

The OPSWA was created in 1972 to support, promote and recognize coverage of high school sports across Ohio and is endorsed by the Ohio High School Athletic Association. More about the Ohio Prep Sportswriters Association is posted at: <https://www.ohsaa.org/news/OPSWA>.

Moeller's Jordan Marshall Takes Home Mr. Football

By Mike Dyer, Cincinnati WCPO-TV

Moeller High School senior running back Jordan Marshall kneels at the 40-yard line before every football game and prays.

The prayer includes three priorities of God, family and everyone associated with the high school.

"I'm at peace when I'm out there playing the game I love with those three things in my mind and my heart," Marshall said. "When I think about those three things and who I'm playing for — it's bigger than yourself at the end of the day."

So it's no surprise why the 37th Ohio Mr. Football recipient said the prestigious statewide award is a way to honor Moeller and his teammates from the past four years.

"That award goes to every single one of them," Marshall said. "And I wouldn't be where I am today without them."

Marshall, a Michigan verbal commit, was named Ohio Mr. Football Thursday afternoon by the Ohio Prep Sportswriters Association.

Cleveland Heights junior running back Marquise Davis was the runner-up in the statewide media panel vote.

Marshall, a 2022 Ohio Mr. Football finalist, is the third Mr. Football winner from Greater Cincinnati in the past five seasons. Former Roger Bacon running back Corey Kiner (2020) and former Wyoming quarterback Evan Prater (2019) earned the award, which has been given the state's top individual football player since 1987.

Former NFL fullback Marc Edwards, a former Norwood High School standout, was the first Cincinnati-area player to win the award in 1992.

Marshall said he is grateful and at the same time humbled by the award. "It's a blessing," Marshall said. "There's only been four in Cincinnati so to just be up there with those names is just special. And to honor my school and the people here is what's most exceptional about it."

Tears of joy accompanied Marshall Tuesday morning as he hugged Moeller coach Bert Bathiany upon hearing the news.

Marshall immediately thought of his mother, Amy Allphin, who he said inspires him to be his best every day in life.

"It's all a credit to her," Marshall said. "She's the real MVP. She's Mr. Ohio in my heart."

Marshall played with heart throughout his senior season. It was a campaign that saw him break the school's all-time rushing yards record in late September.

"You think of Moeller's history and the tradition of this school and he's the first Mr. Football," Bathiany said. "I think that says a lot. It's pretty special."

Marshall, rated the nation's No. 6 running back by the 247 Sports Composite, helped to lead the Crusaders (10-5), who were a Division I state semifinalist for the third consecutive year.

Marshall, 18, rushed for 1,550 yards and 17 touchdowns this season in 13 games. He had 30 receptions for 394 yards and four touchdowns. He completed his high school career with 4,787 yards rushing.

"The smartest player I've ever coached without question," Bathiany said. "I've never seen anyone give more effort with the ball in their hands. When he runs the ball, how hard he runs and twists and twerks his body to just get every single yard. He really does give every ounce of effort he has when he's carrying that football."

Marshall, who is 6 feet and 205 pounds, said he has a great deal of respect for the game of football and the life lessons it teaches throughout the year.

"Talent only gets you so far," Marshall said. "And nobody sees the hard work that I put in the weight room or on the field. I think I'm the best player in the country because I outwork everybody. I think I'm one of the hardest working people there is. I'm going to keep proving that."

No one is doubting his resolve. Marshall, the 2022 Gatorade Ohio player of the year, made it difficult on opposing defenses during his high school career.

"He's the best running back I have seen," said Elder coach Doug Ramsey, who completed his 27th season as head coach.

"We played (former Ohio State running back) Maurice Clarett twice, (current Ohio State running back) Miyan Williams four times and a few out of state players who were big time and nobody was better. He's not only a great runner but also a receiver and he runs so hard. It's impossible for one guy to bring him down. He's a special player."

Marshall, who twice earned Greater Catholic League South division player of the year honors, entered this season as one of the nation's top 10 running backs to watch, according to MaxPreps.

Regardless of the spotlight, Marshall stayed true to representing Moeller. "He's an all-around kid who gets it," said Moeller principal Carl Kremer, who is the school's longtime basketball coach. "He has a bright future ahead of him."

Marshall sings in the school choir, is a captain for the school's House System and has volunteered for youth camps among other activities. Mr. Football looks forward to giving back whenever he can.

"He just loves seeing the joy in other people when he can help make them smile and help make their day better," Bathiany said.
