Welcome to the 2020 State Wrestling Championships

A great deal of information – both in the official program and in this media guide – is available to each of you covering the tournament. Besides the charts that are in this guide, please reference the official state tournament program. In addition, there is a complete printed list of every state placer since 1938 (the last three years state placers can be found in this media guide). Please see one of the OHSAA assistants working on media row.

Note that wrestlers are listed by the school name at the time they attended (i.e. Kettering Fairmont East/West). However, if the school changed mailing addresses (i.e. Dayton Wayne to Huber Heights Wayne) then the school is listed by its new location. Schools that have added to their name, because of an additional school being built (i.e. Pickerington Central/North) are listed according to what the school is currently called.

Ohio Wrestling Officials Association Hall of Fame

Jack Regis

In 1992 my officiating career started at a Martins Ferry High School open tournament. I stopped to watch Larry Deaton and a few other officials on my way to see my brother. Larry and Steve Kish were working short because of a no show official. They told me to get on a mat and help. So that's when the fire started to become an official.

From there I went on to get my officials license and with the help of many experienced officials I've had a very good career officiating. Some of my officiating includes:

15 West Virginia Regionals

15 West Virginia State Tournaments

24 Ohio Sectionals

17 Districts and a State Tournament

I have worked the tables at both the State tournament and the State individual tournament for many years and I enjoy each and every time I'm involved. This year marked my 25th OVAC Wrestling Tournament, where I was the official of the year twice. I was also recognized as official of the year in WV in 1997.

I have been Secretary/Treasurer of our Association for 23 years and through a lot of hard work and the help of many, the association has grown financially and with new members. I became an instructor when it first started and have been doing it since that time. I have added more than 25 officials to wrestling. I am also the only assigner in the Eastern District. My hope is to continue adding new officials and grow our association and the sport of wrestling.

Ohio High School Wrestling Coaches Association Media Service Award Recipient

Chris Easterling - Massillon Independent

Chris Easterling's career covering wrestling for the Massillon Independent started randomly enough, with a season preview being thrown at him last minute in 1999. That was introduction to a sport which he never participated in growing up, yet has become one of his favorites to cover.

This marks his 20th consecutive state wrestling tournament. In the two-plus decades he's been covering the sport, he's been fortunate to document 40 individual state champions, more than 100 state placers and innumerable individuals simply achieving a life-long goal of reaching the state tournament.

Chris began his career in 1994 as a correspondent for The Independent while still a senior at Canal Fulton Northwest High School. After attending the University of Kentucky, Chris began working full-time for the paper in 1998. Through his sports writing career, he has covered University of Kentucky football and basketball, the Cleveland Indians, multiple NCAA basketball tournaments, the last two NCAA Wrestling Championships, along with hundreds of high school games.

He would like to thank all of the Stark County coaches and wrestlers over the years who have been of great assistance to him, including but certainly not limited to Dave Riggs, Dan Michel, Dan Staats, Mike Mattingly, Chase Horvath, Dave Tolarchyk, Brent McBurney and Nate Carr. He would also like to thank all of his media brethren, specifically Josh Lowe, whose encyclopedic knowledge of the sport is always seemingly accessible.

He would also like to thank his family for their support, even his younger brother J.R., who is the former head wrestling coach at Akron Manchester High School and currently is a OHSA wrestling official.

Finally, and most importantly, he would like to thank his daughter Brianna, an eighth-grade student at Northwest Middle School in their hometown of Canal Fulton.

Since 1995, a media member has been honored at the OHSA State Wrestling Tournaments for his or her outstanding dedication and service in covering the sport of interscholastic wrestling. The honoree will also be presented a plaque in ceremonies prior to the third session on Friday evening.

For the first two years of the award, the honoree was selected by state tournament management. Beginning at the 1996 state tournament, a system was established whereby media members covering the state finals select the winner for the following year. The previous winners have been:

1995: Mike Massa (deceased), WVIZ-TV, Cleveland
1996: Brian Brakeman, The Brakeman Report/WVIZ-TV

High School Wrestling Tied to Professional Wrestling?

Submitted by Dan Cutchner

In 1920, Ohio State University appointed Al Haft Head wrestling coach, the second year Ohio State had a wrestling team. As an army hand-to-hand combat instructor during World War I, Al taught thousands of young soldiers wrestling moves that could save their lives. One of his early wrestling recruits was Harry Steele, a farm kid from East Sparta, Ohio. Harry became an NCAA champion and was the Gold Medalist in the 1924 Olympics. He was the last wrestling gold medalist from Ohio State until Kyle Snyder in 2016.

The depression hit a few years later and collegiate and interscholastic wrestling was put on the back burner. In 1947 Casey Fredericks, a 1932 National Champion from Purdue and a professional wrestler, was named as the new Head coach at Ohio State. He too had been a hand to hand combat drill instructor. At the time, millions of soldiers were returning home to start families, and there was considerable interest in wrestling.

During this time, Al had owned several gyms around Columbus and had become a professional wrestling and boxing promoter. Haft had brought greats to Columbus: Joe Louis, Jack Dempsey, Jim Corbette, Jess Williard, Gene Tunney... WRESTLING, Farmer Burns, Ed "Strangler" Lewis, Joe Stecher, Zbyszko brothers, John Pesek, Mildred Burke, Gorgeous George, and Nature Boy Buddy Rogers. He and Casey knew that in order for both High School and Professional wrestling to grow, the fan base need to be extended with young athletes introduced to the sport. They went on the road, traveling throughout Ohio, putting on demonstrations, talking to local Boards of Education, Athletic booster clubs, Kiwanis, Rotary clubs, anyone who would listen. By 1957, the number of High schools with wrestling programs grew from 14, to 257.

Both Al and Casey had an interesting group of people they recruited to help. Al employed his brother in law, George Woodland, to referee both professional boxing and wrestling. Bob's son, Don Woodland, was given the task to start a new program at Pleasantview, one of the first central Ohio Schools to have wrestling outside of Worthington and Arlington. When Franklin Heights was built, Don and his assistant coach, Bob Mowery started wrestling there. Don moved on to become the head coach at Capital University, and later became a state senator and liquor commissioner. Don also helped start the program at Ready High School where his son Eric was a two time state champion. If you have ever stopped in at a Donerick Lounge in Columbus or Dublin, they were started by Don and Eric.

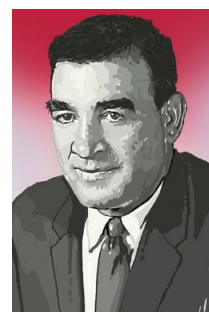

As the sport expanded, the practice of having the coaches referee the matches became problematic. Casey talked his long time assistant coach at Ohio State, Tony Montonaro, into writing the rules and mechanics for officials. Tony traveled the state with his notebooks and assisted groups in organizing and training officials. With the backing of the Ohio High School Athletic Association, Tony tried to bring consistency throughout the state by setting up a series of local associations. In 1965, there were still no written rules for the conduct of matches, and the NCAA and National Federation of High Schools invited Tony to a meeting in Chicago to develop the rules book. Tony's notebook was the basis of the first official book published in 1966.

Bob Mowery became the first president of the Central District Wrestling Officials Association and also served as its secretary. Casey Fredericks and Al Haft were inducted into the Ohio Wrestling Hall of Fame in 1970, Tony Montonaro in 1971, and Don Woodland in 1978. Bob Mowery was inducted into the Ohio Wrestling Officials Hall of Fame in 1995.

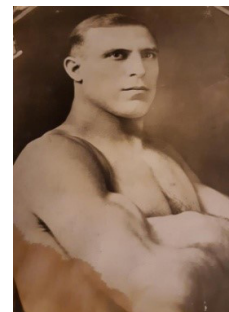

I'd like to Acknowledge Mike Zim for the research on the professional side and pictures and Mike Nicholson, of the Schottenstein Center, for help with the OSU research
